Why Groundhog Day?

By Jean Perry

We at The Wanderer celebrate Groundhog Day every year – we even throw a party and give out gifts to all our advertisers and associates. But why the big deal over a silly tale of a groundhog that will supposedly predict the next six weeks of weather?

First and foremost, it is a chance to celebrate having made it through the first bitter half of winter, with February 2 being the midway point between the official start of winter and the official start of spring – the equinox of the equinox, if you will.

Groundhog Day symbolizes an act of defiance of sorts, in the face of the second bitter half of winter still to come. Every February 2, we stand around a magical groundhog, who even defies death by drinking a secret elixir every summer during the Groundhog Picnic that adds seven years to his life, and we hope for winter's hasty death.

We watch to see if Punxsutawney Phil will see his shadow and retreat back into the earth to spend six more weeks in a winter coma, or if he will stay above ground as we melt our way into March over the next six weeks.

Before it was ever called Groundhog Day in the 1800s, the early German settlers of Pennsylvania brought with them the tradition of Candlemas Day, with its age-old saying, "For as the sun shines on Candlemas Day, so far will the snow swirl in May…"

The tradition of trekking to Gobbler's Knob on February 2 began in 1887 and has remained a tradition ever since.

Just last year, Phil, named so after King Phillip and formerly referred to as Br'er Groundhog, indeed saw his shadow, which was followed by subsequent hell to pay in the form of two massive back-to-back winter storms in February and a miserably cold March that wouldn't quit.

Some believers say Phil is always right. Whenever he doesn't see his shadow, we hope he is.

Groundhog Day does, for us, symbolize hope, however fleeting that hope may be. We maintain the perpetual optimism that the dark days of freezing cold and impromptu blizzards will end and the warmer, sunnier days of spring will push those daffodils through softer ground and hurry up and get here.

And even if winter lingers longer than it takes a sloth to round up a herd of snails, we get to enjoy that one day when a short, furry, groggy groundhog crawls out of his hole and says, "Bite me, winter!"

If that isn't something to celebrate, then we don't know what is.

to question my wisdom in leaving the cozy confines of my home to sit in a meeting. I would learn later why the meeting had not been re-scheduled, but that is information for another page.

Back home now and hunkered in for the night, even the dog knows not to expect much and has curled himself into a tight ball of fluff. Hibernation – dogs do it.

As the hours float by on snowflakes, my thoughts return again and again to my childhood when ample snowfalls simply meant fun.

We didn't have all the fancy sub-zero clothing and boots available today. We rarely stayed home from school because of snow. Snow was nothing to fear. Our dads all had chains on their car tires. No siree, Bob! We were tough back in the day. You've heard the stories, right? We walked for miles to school in blizzards then forged our way back home again through hip-deep snow and never complained. (Okay, so the school was only a short walk from the house).

And insulated boots? Nope. We had rubber boots or galoshes. If you are of a certain age, you'll remember the agony of trying to pull on a rubber boot over your shoes. My mother's method was to place my father's long argyle socks over our shoes then up over the quilted snow pants and then slip the foot into the toe of the rubber boot. With lots of yanking and grunting on her part, the rubber would finally be snugged into place. After closing up the unforgiving metal buckles on the front of the rubbers, we were finally ready to head into the winter wonderland.

Mittens knitted by our mothers were frequently exchanged on the doorstep for a dry pair. We weren't about to let wet mittens stop the fun. But oftentimes, it was the feet that failed us long before our frozen fingertips did.

The lack of insulation around the foot, the feeble ability of the galoshes to protect our toes from cold, and the intrusion of snow inside the boot itself put the double whammy on us. Begrudgingly, we eventually dragged our tiny bodies into the house.

The process of dismantling our carefully attired forms was nearly as tiresome for a small child as the process of gearing up to go out. But then we were stuck inside the house until all that wet wool could dry and that took hours. Every cast iron radiator was decorated in wet coats, hats, scarves, socks, and mittens.

Years later, when our grandchildren came along, I'd return to the joy of playing in the snow with a small army of little girls in the backyard making snowmen or slinging snowballs at one another. By then, though, we could stay outside much longer and more comfortably with new types of fabric and insulation materials. Though I often run nostalgically over many of my childhood memories, I readily admit that I love today's modern coats and boots and proudly own my fair share. ("You bought another coat, Marilou!" That would be my husband talking).

Today, I still go outside in the snow, but I am now aided by snowshoes and poles, coats with artic temperature ratings, and boots for all seasons and weather conditions. Oh yeah, I forgot – I also stick on one or more of those self-adhesive heating pads for good measure.

The hours have sailed by and the gales are still blowing this midday Tuesday, January 27. Here's hoping I can find a few kids outside, cavorting as I once did – and if I do, I sure hope they let me try out their sleds.

MLT Donors' Names Carved in Stone

By Jean Perry

Those who frequent the Mattapoisett Bike Rail may have noticed a new stone monument placed near the wooded wetlands where the bike path crosses Brandt Island Road.

The new marker was placed at the site last week to mark the seven acres donated by Jeanette Mello of Mattapoisett who inherited the parcel from her parents, Captain Jack and Bridgette Murray.

Mello donated the conservation land to the Mattapoisett Land Trust back in December 2011, and the monument is now being placed to honor the Murrays and raise awareness of the MLT's acquisition of the land.

During a January 23 phone interview, Mattapoisett Land Trust President Gary Johnson said there had not been funds for the stone monument until recently, after years of saving funding for the marker.

Johnson said that although there is no public access to the site, the location of Murray Preserve alongside the bike path abuts hundreds of acres of land in the Nasketucket Bay area protected by the Buzzards Bay Coalition.

"The Mattapoisett Land Trust would not usually accept an isolated seven-acre parcel of land like this one," said Johnson. "But knowing a larger conservation project [with the BBC] was in the works, we accepted the conservation land in an area that is important, especially along the bike path."

Johnson said because the land is too wet to traverse and there aren't any hiking trails, the stone monument will serve to make the public aware of properties acquired and protected by the Mattapoisett Land Trust.

for dogs. The Town of Mattapoisett is now offering a free online cat registry so Mattapoisett cat owners can sign up their cats and provide relevant information in case the cat goes missing.

The Town will store the cat's information, including the owner's name and address, cat's name, color, age, gender, and markings, and cat owners can upload a photo of their cat to further help identify it.

If a cat is reported found, the Town can use its GIS (geographic information system) database to inform residents in a certain area of town where the cat was found that the cat is missing. The cat's description could also be used to match it with the registry and the owner can be contacted.

The service is offered to Mattapoisett residents only.

You can sign your cat up for the program by visiting the Town's website at www.mattapoisett.net, and scrolling down on the homepage to the cat icon saying "Online Cat Identification Program Sign-up."

If you cannot upload a photo of the cat, you may bring one into Town Hall and someone will help you.

DaRosa Pier Appeal Upheld by DEP

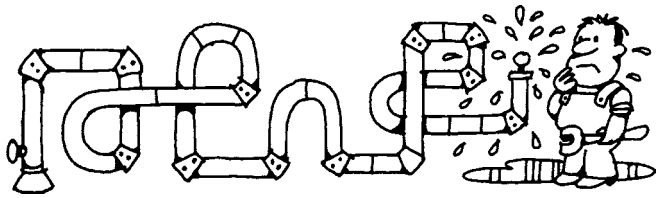

Mattapoisett Conservation Commission

By Marilou Newell

It was soon clear why the Mattapoisett Conservation Commission did not let the blizzard stop its January 26 meeting from taking place.

Chairman Bob Rogers told the commission and the three people in attendance that the impetus for conducting the scheduled meeting was due to a Wednesday, January 28 deadline to appeal a Department of Environmental Protection upholding of the Daniel DaRosa appeal for the construction of a massive residential pier on Goodspeed Island.

Rogers and Conservation Agent Elizabeth Leidhold were both surprised at the speed in which the DEP announced their uploading of DaRosa's appeal – a mere six weeks.

On Friday, January 23 the Town received the DEP's verdict. The town has only until Wednesday, January 28 to respond with an appeal.

Saying that he felt 'rushed' during the last public hearing, Rogers said that by appealing, the commission could provide a better elaboration of their issues concerning the construction of the pier.

"This will give us an opportunity to expand upon our reasons for denying the application," Rogers stated.

A vocal opponent to DaRosa's personal pier, Michael Huguenin, also braved the elements to make his case to the commission that they should step forward.

"We have done research and raised money…. We will participate in an appeal," Huguenin said.

He explained that a Town appeal and any appeal by private parties would be heard by the DEP's Dispute Resolution Department, not the DEP staff in Lakeville.

Huguenin continued, "…the Town is an abutter to this project … we hope the Town will appeal this…"

Winter Hours By Appointment: Tuesday-Saturday.

He shared that in the beginning, the citizen group he had spearheaded had approximately 100 signatures against the DaRosa plan. That number now stands at 204. He said there is wide interest around town.

"People come up to me in the post office, in the grocery store. They want to know what is going on…" Huguenin was surprised at the amount of concern expressed to him about DaRosa's plan even in "the dead of winter."

He said that the citizen's group has collected financial backing and more engineering information that will be used to mount a defense against the project moving forward.

Huguenin said that, had DaRosa been willing to sit down and discuss a more conservative private pier, something could have been worked out. In the absence of that type of compromise, he said, "We are willing to spend our own money."

As for the Conservation Commission members, the board is split. Rogers and members Marylou Kelliher and Peter Newton have spoken to deny the project from the beginning, and on this night supported appealing the DEP's upholding of the appeal in favor of DaRosa.

Commission member Tom Coops said he had questions and needed to abstain from voting.

"I felt it was a permittable project under the Wetlands Protection Act," said ConCom member Michael King. "…It's going to be appealed by private citizens … so it's a waste of [the Town's] time and money to appeal now."

With Coops abstaining and King opposing, the commission moved to ask the selectmen to support an appeal of the DEP ruling and to fund legal counsel moving forward.

In other business, the commission approved a Notice of Intent filed by Robert Brack of 18 Water Street to construct a replacement residential pier.

Also approved with conditions was an application by Frank Linhares of 16 Holly Lane for the construction of a 28- foot by 32-foot barn, paved driveway, and in-ground pool on a 27-acre site that was formally a gravel pit. The new home was touted by King as "a nice improvement over the gravel pit."

Also approved was an application by William Durbin, 21 Bay Road, for the construction of a stand-alone workshop on property that had previously suffered a severe fire.

Over the objections of abutters located at 20 Highland Avenue and 25 Bay Road (via letters read in part at the meeting), the commission felt the project was not in violation of the Wetlands Protection Act.

The next meeting of the Mattapoisett Conservation Commission will be held on February 9 at 6:30 pm in the Mattapoisett Town Hall meeting room.

ZBA: 'Common Sense Over Bureaucracy'

Marion Zoning Board of Appeals

By Jean Perry

The Marion Planning Board majority wanted the building permit for the Briggs' solar farm on County Road revoked so the board could conduct a site plan review of the project it claims it is entitled to. But on January 22, the Marion Zoning Board of Appeals decided it would uphold the building permit, citing "common sense over bureaucracy."

ZBA Chairman Eric Peirce acknowledged Planning Board member Robert Lane's argument that

Chapter 9 of the Zoning Bylaws requires a site plan review was "really well put together." Lane emphasized that the Planning Board did not seek to thwart the project any further, but to simply avoid setting a dangerous precedent for future projects similar in nature.

"It is not about the variance … and it is not about the solar farm," said Lane. "What it's about is the Planning Board's authority to conduct a site plan review in the bylaws."

Lane and fellow board members Chairman Stephen Kokkins and Rico Ferrari, both in attendance, maintained that the building permit should be revoked until the Planning Board exercised its right to a site plan review. Lane cited various reasons such as ambiguity in the bylaws relative to the definition of "structure" and "gross floor area," as well as the part of Section 9 that mentions triggering a site plan review before the Planning Board.

"I'm sure the entire Planning Board would expedite any sort of approval," said Lane, "… and a precedent would be placed."

Peirce said the ZBA has to be especially careful to stay away from establishing any sort of precedent, and the board looks at each application on a case-by-case basis, saying otherwise the board would face a slippery slope.

Dale and Laura Briggs sat quietly and made no comments when invited to speak.

Building Commissioner Scott Shippey, who issued the building permit subsequent to the ZBA granting the variance, also declined comment, but later told the board he had "broad shoulders" and could handle it should the board not uphold the permit.

After the public hearing was closed and Planning Board members left, Peirce told Shippey, "You were doing what we told you to do."

With all due respect, stated Peirce, "We've seen [the project before us] so many times we respectively have done the site plan review."

Peirce questioned the Planning Board's right to challenge the building permit addressing some key issues.

"Are they aggrieved?" asked Peirce. "Other than philosophically, they aren't pained."

Although the Planning Board could virtually streamline the site plan review approval process and follow "the letter of the law," Peirce said he felt the intent of the bylaw was more important in this case.

"My opinion is not to overturn the building inspector," said Peirce. "I don't think we're doing the Town a disservice." He added that the ZBA does not make a practice of "competing with other boards."

"And I don't intend to," said Peirce. "But there's common sense, and there's bureaucracy."

The ZBA will wait to take a formal vote until its next meeting, but the board voiced its support for upholding the building permit. Peirce said he would run the issue by town counsel before taking action.

"It's meant with no disrespect, but let's move on," Peirce said.

Also during the meeting, the board approved the special permit application for Jon Delli Priscoli of 91 Water Street to build an addition onto the historic cottage.

The next meeting of the Marion Zoning Board of Appeals is scheduled for February 26 at 7:30 pm at the Marion Town House.

My dog was in the garage with me as I was changing the antifreeze in my car. He sniffed the old antifreeze and was going to drink it. I stopped him. Would it make him sick?

Antifreeze (Ethylene glycol) has a sweet smell that is, unfortunately, attractive to dogs. It can cause kidney failure if the dog is not treated within 4-6 hours after drinking this poison. If you see your dog or cat drinking antifreeze, take him to your veterinarian immediately.

On January 23, the committee headed by Norman Hills with members Paul Naiman, Casey Barros, Carol Sanz, Ted North, Dick Gilberti, and Stephen Cushing reviewed the project list and discussed the scoring process.

The multi-million dollar list contains: Pumping station repairs - $14,195; Atlantis Drive Fire Safety system - $17,775; Washburn Park restroom repairs - $11,395; Sippican School floor renovations - $50,000; Sippican School EMS communications (as required by new state testing procedures) - $18,000; Marine/Harbormaster new trucks - $63,000; Highway Department one-ton diesel pick-up - $56,000; Highway Department FY14 pavement plan - $273,000; Highway Department general road repairs - $60,000; Water Department one-ton 4x4 pick-up - $56,000; Sewer Department generator replacement - $35,000; and for the Fire Department, a new pumper - $540,000; new ambulance - $237,000; engine 2 repairs - $20,000; two Lucas CPR devices - $28,000; and computer software - $27,000.

Another Highway Department line item titled 'NPDES Permit Analysis' was kept on the list but the price tag is an evolving number. As a placeholder, the committee used $450,000 but a firmer number will be needed before it can be sent to the Finance Committee for their review.

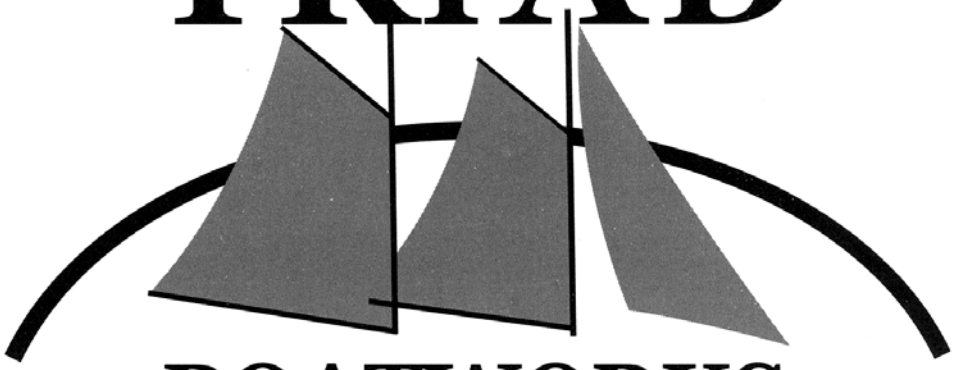

NPDES stands for National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System. The Environmental Protection Agency oversees the wastewater discharge of municipal and industrial wastewater facilities, regulating the levels of pollutants discharged and issuing a permit with strict requirements. Marion is appealing the EPA's findings that call for lower levels of nitrogen discharged and threaten the elimination of the Town's three sewage lagoons.

Calling for "…further review … but may return," Hills dropped the following Highway Department projects totaling just over $5 million from the list: MS4 permit assessment; isolated flood area study; Phase 1B construction; and Phase 2 design. Also on hold indefinitely were two Water Department projects. Those projects are well field explore tagged at $50,000 and Mill Street Water Main design at $150,000.

The majority of the capital needs identified by the Town's departments will be funded through general funds, although enterprise funds may be eyed on several. All requests will require voter approval at Town Meeting in the spring.

from one to 10 for the projects, the committee received a rating sheet that asks critical questions. Those questions are:

1) Is the capital item a matter of regulatory state, federal or local compliance?

2) Is the capital item a matter of public safety?

3) What is the department's priority for the requested item?

4) Is the capital item request a replacement, upgrade or new item or service?

5) What is the impact of the capital item on the overall operation and maintenance for the department to provide service?

6) How will this capital item be financed?

7) What is the capital item's lifespan?

Hills counseled the committee to use the same method or thinking process for each request. Their hope is that this part of their work can be wrapped up by the end of February.

The next meeting of the Marion Capital Improvement Committee is scheduled for January 29 at 7:00 pm in the Police Station community meeting room.

What is Google Docs?

ORR Update

By Patrick Briand

Technology integration in education has been a big topic for over a decade now.

School administrators are always looking for new ways to make schoolwork accessible to students via the Internet and to encourage Internet usage for the purpose of educational improvement.

Google Docs, along with its accompanying services like Google Drive and Google Slides, is one of the programs that Old Rochester Regional uses to get kids involved with online learning. Every ORR Junior High and High School student has an account, and a few high school students gave their opinions on the online service.

Senior Matthew Bourgeois has been using Google Docs for several years now and has a great understanding of the program. He had nothing but praise for the way Google Docs makes working online an easy task.

"Accessibility and instant saving are the best features of Google Docs," said Bourgeois. "I use it anytime I have a project with partners, especially in my history-based electives."

Bourgeois wishes that all teachers would use

Google Docs, and he wishes that those who use it currently would utilize it even more.

"It's easier for us to use most of the time. You can easily look up teachers' assignment directions when you're connected, so it takes guessing out of the equation," he said.

Sophomore Ari Dias also thought the automatic saving was a good idea on Google Docs' part; however, she wasn't crazy about the program as a whole.

"[It's] slow and kind of complicated. Sometimes seeing a real-life example (in place of what is seen on Google Docs) would help students more," said Dias.

Dias and junior Jacob Lawrence agreed that English was the class where Google Docs is most commonly used. Lawrence added that he uses it for "every typed assignment."

In contrast, junior Teagan Walsh said Math and Spanish were the classes she was most likely to use it in, even though her teachers seem to use the website sparingly.

Many students differ greatly on how many days they log in per week and how much time they spend on the website.

Usage time depends greatly on what classes are taken and what teachers a student has, as teachers range from never incorporating the program to making it a part of everyday class life.

For senior Luke Gauvin, it's closer to the latter.

"I use it five days a week," Gauvin said, mentioning that Google Docs was prominent in a multitude of his classes.

It's safe to say Google Docs isn't going anywhere anytime soon.

Since the service can apply to so many classes, many teachers feel it is a great tool to utilize. For many students, Google Docs has become part of an everyday educational regimen that also includes services like PowerSchool and other technology-based platforms designed for education.

Tabor has 19 dorms that are scattered throughout campus, the largest of which houses 32 students. The smallest dorm is home to five students. At least four faculty members are "dormparents" who supervise the students and plan activities. Some of these dormparents live in houses or apartments that are attached to the dormitories. There are 55 faculty houses on campus where dormparents and their families reside.

The new dorm is being constructed behind Baxter House – a girls' dormitory located on Front Street – on the plot of land across from the Spring Street Fire Station. This location is accessible to students given its proximity to the main campus and is directly next to the Braitmayer Art Center and the Charles Hayden Library.

This dorm was designed by Saltonstall Architects and will be built with local materials, given Tabor's emphasis on the importance of sustainability. The math and science wing of Tabor Academy, which was re-done in 2005, was also designed by Saltonstall Architects and was LEED Gold Certified by the U.S. Green Building Council.

Although all dorms vary in age and layout, this dorm will not necessarily follow the layout pattern of old dorms and is designed to feel more like a home.

The dorm is not meant to accommodate an expanding student body, but will relocate current Tabor students.

Three smaller dorms, which are less efficient than Matsumura House, will house a few students. This house will be home to over 20 male students and their dormparents.

Tabor believes that "dormitories form the foundation of [their] boarding community," so the addition of an updated dorm will be a positive change to Tabor's campus and community.

The project, which began this January, will hopefully be ready to house students by this coming school year.

The groundbreaking of this new dorm can be viewed in a short video at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TiKOfO90pxQ&feature=youtu.be.

season of excellence this week, defeating two more SCC teams to remain perfect in the conference. The boys first defeated Apponequet 68-53 thanks to strong performances by junior Will Santos, who scored 18 points, freshman Noah Fernandes, who scored 15 points, and senior Jordan Menard who recorded a double-double (11 points, 13 rebounds). The win had extra significance, as the Bulldogs officially qualified for the state tournament, becoming the first team in the Southcoast to do so. Later in the week, ORR defeated GNB Voc-Tech in an 82-41 blowout. The boys got out to a 30-8 lead after the first quarter and never looked back, with four Bulldogs scoring in the double-digits. Menard was the top scorer on the night with 20 points.

Girls' Basketball: The girls had a tough week, losing to both Apponequet (54-38) and GNB Voc-Tech (66-34) to drop their conference record to 6-6 overall. Sophie Church led the Lady Bulldogs offensively in both games, scoring 15 points against Apponequet and 11 against GNB Voc-Tech. Morgan Browning also played well against GNB Voc-Tech, recording 10 points on the night. With an overall record of 7-5, the girls will need to play consistently in order to keep their record above .500 to qualify for the state tournament.

Boys' Track: This week, the boys' team finished off their regular season with two wins against Diman (66-20) and Seekonk (57-29). Kevin Saccone won both the hurdles and high jump in both meets, and against Diman, Hunter Parker won the mile, while sophomore Will Hopkins won the 300 meters. Later in the week, several of the team's top athletes took place in the MSTCA Coaches Invitational/Elite Meet, with several posting impressive results. The highlight was once again Saccone, who placed fifth in the hurdles and won the long jump, defeating some of the state's best athletes with a monster leap of 22'1". Next week, the team's freshmen and sophomores have a chance to shine in the annual Janiak Freshmen Sophomore Meet.

Girls' Track: The girls' team also notched another two wins to close out their regular season, while in the process clinching their fifth consecutive undefeated SCC title. Despite having several girls out due to sickness, the girls managed to defeat Seekonk (70.5-15.5) and Diman (82-4). Winners for the Lady Bulldogs included Nicole Mattson (600 meters), Maggie Adams (55-meter dash), Zoe Smith (55 hurdles), Sam Ball (1000 meters), and Maddie Meyer (two mile, mile). The Lady Bulldogs' freshmen and sophomores will also be competing in the Teammate Nate Wentworth was the only other Bulldog to win an event in the meet, claiming the 100 breaststroke in 1:23. With the loss, the boys' record now stands at 1-5 overall.

the season with their win over Dighton-Rehoboth, 94-75. The girls had several winning performances on the day, including Teagan Walsh (diving), Julianne Mariner (100-breaststroke), and Cate Feldkamp (500-freestyle). In addition, the 400-freestyle relay team of Colleen Beatriz, Megan Field, Molly Richards, and Erin Burke took home first place, adding valuable points to contribute to the girls' win. ORR's record now stands at 2-4.

Ice Hockey: This week, the ORR/Fairhaven hockey team faced off against SCC rival Dighton-Rehoboth for the first time this season. Just prior to the end of a Bulldog-dominated first period, Dighton-Rehoboth managed to get one past the ORR defense in the final five seconds, giving the Falcons a 1-0 advantage going into the second period. However, the Bulldogs responded with five goals in the second period that would prove pivotal in their eventual 6-2 win. Scorers for the Bulldogs included Jeremy Lawton, Jake Durocher, Sam Henrie, Shane Matthews, Zach Peterson, and Mike Lygren. The win was a very important one for the Bulldogs, as it knocked D-R off the top of the SCC rankings, which ORR/Fairhaven now shares with Bourne.

Below are the overall winter team records, followed by the conference records in wins, losses, and ties as of January 25.

Over winter break, many Tabor athletes were still busy working hard while competing in holiday tournaments. The Boys' and Girls' Varsity Basketball Teams and the Boys' and Girls' Varsity Hockey Teams had great results in their tournaments overall.

The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team won the Nickerson Tournament over break, beating three impressive teams and most notably, ending the Noble and Greenough School's 70-game winning streak.

The Boys' Varsity Basketball Team lost at the start of their tournament but rebounded to beat The Roxbury Latin School and St. Sebastian's School.

ORR Head Coach Selected

Principal Michael Devoll and Athletic Director Bill Tilden are pleased to announce the hiring of Justin Kogler as the next Head Coach of the Old Rochester Regional High School Football program. Coach Kogler is just the third Head Coach at Old Rochester since the 1986 season, succeeding Henry Quinlan and Craig Sherman. Justin was most recently the Head Coach at Bishop Connolly High School in Fall River, Massachusetts. At Bishop Connolly, Justin's team set the school record for the most wins in a season in each of his first three seasons as Head Coach. Bishop Connolly also qualified for the playoffs for the first time in school history and made the South Sectional Semi Finals in 2014. Prior to taking over at Bishop Connolly, Coach Kogler was an Assistant Football Coach at ORRHS, working under former coach Henry Quinlan. Justin's work at ORRHS included stints as the Offensive and Defensive Line Coach and the Defensive Coordinator. Justin also worked with the receivers and linebackers. Justin also was an Assistant Coach for the ORRHS Winter and Spring Track Teams. Professionally, Justin works as a Physical Education Teacher at Williams Intermediate School in the Bridgewater-Raynham School District. According to Bill Tilden, "He coached here a while back and even after he left, he's been a big fan and he'd come to games. The kids are really loyal to him.

He has a laid-back coaching style, but he expects a lot of his kids. We just like his style. He took on a program at Bishop Connolly that no one wanted and it was in a lot of disarray, and he turned it around so we know what he can bring to a program." Principal Devoll said, "Having a Coach like Justin on staff is an asset. He was the perfect candidate for our search committee as he brings a strong background in both education and football. Having worked under Coach Quinlan and with Coach Sherman has afforded Justin the opportunity to learn from the best. We are very excited for the future of our athletic program."

Vaughan Williams' cornerstone of the English wind band repertoire, begins the second half of the program. Next, MU1 Karna Millen offers a virtuosic tour-de-force for trombone written by the romantic German composer Ferdinand David. David's "Concertino" displays MU1 Millen's rhapsodic vocal qualities on the instrument as well as her superb technical rapidity. The concert will conclude with the ever poignant and exhilarating "1812 Overture" by Russian composer Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky.

Musician 1st Class Karna Millen, trombone, joined the United States Coast Guard Band in 2009. Originally from Edina, Minnesota, her early trombone training came from her father, also a professional trombonist. Currently the second trombonist of the Albany Symphony, she is an active orchestral, chamber, and freelance musician throughout New England. In Boston, she has played with the Symphony, Pops, Esplanade, Ballet, and Opera Orchestras, and was a two-time Fellow at the Tanglewood Music Center. MU1 Millen is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, and her principal teachers include Norman Bolter, Douglas Wright, and Ron Barron.

There will also be a celebration at intermission marking the 95th birthday of original member (joined in 1962), trumpet player Edith Pliskin.

Tickets are $15 for adults, $5 for students, and children 12 and under are admitted free of charge. Tickets may be purchased in advance at the Symphony Music Shop in Dartmouth and The Bookstall in Marion. Any remaining tickets will be sold at the door. Tabor Academy Hosts Ceramics Exhibition

Two years ago, Tabor Academy art department faculty member Kevin Arnfield (Ceramics, Art History) received a Braitmayer Fellowship from Tabor to research, design and construct a 50-cubic foot wood-fired kiln. Mr. Arnfield's project, much more complicated and involved than he anticipated, took nearly two years to complete and ended up involving a range of people from the Tabor community and beyond. Tabor art faculty, students, trustees, alumni, and people from the local community came together, either in the work of constructing and preparing the kiln or in the work of filling the kiln with ceramics to be fired. The inaugural firing of the kiln in October 2014 was a great success and produced very promising results.

During the first two weeks of February, the gallery in the Braitmayer Art Center will feature an exhibition entitled Wood Fire: Kiln, Art & Community – Ceramics from a Pre-Industrial Technology curated by Mr. Arnfield. The exhibition will address the history and aesthetics particular to wood-fired ceramics and the design and construction of his kiln. It will also address the value of labor and community work inherent in the wood firing process. A selection of ceramics from the 300+ pieces fired in inaugural kiln firing will be on view side by side with a number of important pieces of wood fired art pottery from local collections.

The public is invited to the opening reception of this exhibition on February 6 in the Braitmayer Art Center at Tabor Academy from 6:30 to 7:30 pm.

Gateway Youth Hockey

Mite C: The Gateway Mite C team had an off night and lost to the SC Panthers on Saturday by a score of 28-11. The Mites came out in the first period slow but were able to only be down by two goals in the first period, 9-7. The second period, however, they were not so lucky. The Panthers took control of the game and the lead and never looked back. Brayden Cannon led the team with a hat trick. The other scorers on the night were Jarrod Frates, Paxton Jones, Brayden Hathon, Jack Langlais, Pat Tripp, and Tommy Clavell. Nate Wilson had 21 saves filling in for the sick Charlie Carroll. It was a tough loss for the Mites, but we will be sure to get back to our total team effort ways against Nantucket next Saturday in Falmouth.

Squirts: The Gateway Squirts faced Plymouth Orange Saturday morning and played a stellar game and taking the win 8-0. Joe Urnek got Gateway on the board in the first period assisted by Braden MacDonald. Juni Suarez added two more goals in the first. In the second period, Matthew Quinlan cleared the net assisted by Urnek and Nathan Ribeiro, who also got a goal himself assisted from Matthew Paling. Ty David found the net assisted by Suarez. In the third period, Quinlan and Suarez both put points on the board giving Suarez a hat trick. On defense, Jacob Hebbel, McDonald, Paling, and Thomas Leger were on their game keeping the puck out of Plymouth's possession. Brady Kidney made some nice passes to keep the puck moving. Ryker King earned the shut-out, making some key saves.

Pee Wees: The Gateway Youth Hockey Pee Wee team faced the #1 Pembroke Titans Sunday evening. Although the Pee Wees played hard, they weren't able to overcome the relentless pressure of the Titans, who won the game with a score of 4-0 to hold their top ranking.

Bantams: The Gateway Youth Hockey Bantams blanked Hanover B2, 5-0. Gateway goal scorers included: Tyler and Zachary Lovendale, Jake Demoranville, Robert Ramsay, and Jameson Woodward. Tyler also added an assist. Jared Westgate added two helpers. Noah Demoranville, Jackson St. Don, and Mike Ripley also assisted Gateway goals. Goalie Zachary Pateakos turned away several late-game scoring attempts to preserve the shutout.

Middle School 1: The Middle School 1 team was back in action on Friday night against a tough Taunton team. The Jr. Vikings skated away with a 5-2 victory, pushing their win streak up to six games. The team came out a little flat early on, but eventually found their rhythm when Peter Pimental tipped home a Seth Tomasik slap shot. Next to score was James L'Heureux, who grabbed the puck out from a pile of players in front of the net and snuck it by the goalie. Taunton wouldn't be outdone, scoring on a deflection and a one timer from in close. With the score tied at two, defenseman Coleby Paling found a streaking Quirino doCanto, who beat the defender and somehow managed to get it by the sprawling goalie to give the Jr. Vikings a lead they wouldn't relinquish. Robert Ramsay scored the fourth goal on a nifty backhand shot up and over the goalie, almost from behind the net. Vyper LaTullippe found an open Robert Maloney in the slot to score the last goal, making it 5-2. Jake DeMoranville did a great job in net again, making multiple saves.

He enjoyed spending time with family and friends.

Survivors include his wife; 4 sons, Richard Dubowik, Jr., Daniel O'Connell, Russell O'Connell, and Steven Dubowik; a brother, Lars Vinjerud, II; 2 sisters, Mary Rich and Kate Rumrey; 6 grandchildren, Keith, Dan, Amy, Rich III, Sean and Kaia; and several great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

He was the father of the late Timothy O'Connell.

His visiting hours will be held on Friday, January 30th from 4-8 PM in the Saunders-Dwyer Mattapoisett Home For Funerals, 50 County Rd. (Rt. 6), Mattapoisett. His Graveside Service will be held on Saturday, January 31st at 11 AM in Cushing Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, remembrances may be made to www.crowdrise.com/taraoconnell1 to benefit Rett Syndrome of Massachusetts.

Thomas E. Zipoli, M.D., 84, of Rochester passed away peacefully at his home on Sunday January 25, 2015.

He was born on April 20, 1930, in New Haven, CT, to Mary and Thomas A. Zipoli.

Dr. Zipoli received his undergraduate degree from Boston College in 1952 and his medical degree from the Georgetown University School of Medicine in 1956. He served his internship at St. Luke's Hospital and completed a residency in internal medicine at New England Deaconess Hospital in Boston. He received advanced training in hematology and oncology at New England Deaconess Hospital and the Lahey Clinic. He was awarded the James L. Tullis Lectureship Prize by the New England Deaconess Hospital-Harvard Medical for original study and research by an alumnus.

Dr. Zipoli joined the staff at St. Luke's Hospital in New Bedford in 1962. He was also an assistant in medicine at New England Deaconess Hospital and a clinical instructor in medicine at Harvard Medical School. In 1968, he co-founded Hawthorn Medical Associates, located in Dartmouth, where he practiced internal medicine and clinical oncology for nearly 35 years.

He served his country as a medic in the United States Air Force.

He is survived by his wife, Svanhild (Bendiksen) Zipoli, son Tom Zipoli and his wife, Jane, of Reston VA, and their son, Thomas Joseph, son Matthew Zipoli of Harvard, MA and his three children, Julia, Laurel and Zachary, daughter Paula Zipoli and her significant other Michael Ormiston of Beverly, MA and her two children Benjamin Contois of Philadelphia, PA and Jonathan Contois of New Britain, CT; daughter Cara Zipoli of Boston, step-daughter Shana Schoener and her husband Andrew of Sudbury, and their three children Johan, Caden and Deren, and step-daughter Greta Bouley and her husband Nathan of Sudbury and their two children Hayden and Addison.

For directions and guestbook, please visit www.saundersdwyer.com.

Bennett B. Schneider IV, 88, of Mattapoisett died Saturday January 24, 2015 after a long illness.

Son of the late Bennett B. Schneider III and Elinore (Brackett) Schneider, he is survived by his cherished wife Sharon Martin Schneider, and by his three beloved children, Debra Adams and her husband Kurt of Spencer, MA, Robin Osipova and her husband Vladimir of Townsville, Australia, and Bennett B. Schneider V of Los Angeles, CA; five grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

During a long career in radio and television broadcasting, his most rewarding work accomplishment was his role as Bozo the Clown on Channel 6 in the New Bedford area in 1969-1971. His lifelong vocation was making people laugh.

His greatest pleasures came from this love of languages, Maine, the sea, and history. His greatest frustrations came from trying to understand the incomprehensible human animal, not to mention mathematics and accounting.

He will be sorely missed by his loved ones. His hope was that relatives and friends in both hemispheres drink a farewell toast of a decent Burgundy to his memory.

At his request, services will be private. Arrangements are by the Saunders-Dwyer Mattapoisett Home for Funerals, 50 County Rd., Route 6, Mattapoisett. For online condolence book, please visit www.saundersdwyer.com.

Classic Film Friday

On Friday, February 6 at 7:00 pm, the public is invited to the Marion Music Hall for the month's Classic Film Friday Presentation: It Happened One Night. The event is co-sponsored by the Sippican Historical Society and the Marion Council on Aging, and is offered to the public free of charge. Directed (and co-written) by Frank Capra, the 1934 film is considered one of the greatest romantic comedies in film history. Not only was it a box office sleeper hit, but it was a critical success, as well, garnering five Academy Award nominations and winning in all five categories: Best Picture, Best Actor (Clark Gable), Best Actress (Claudette Colbert), Best Director (Frank Capra), and Best Adaptation (Robert Riskin).

In a reversal of the classic Cinderella story, the film's heiress heroine (Claudette Colbert) rejects her wealthy lifestyle and falls in company – and love – with a gruff, out-of-work reporter (Clark Gable). Class conflicts, socio-economic differences, and battles of wit are played out along a madcap road trip that contains some of the most memorable film scenes ever created. Running time

Love Story

By Rob Gonsalves

Boy Meets Girl.* Starring Michelle Hendley and Michael Welch. Directed by Eric Schaeffer. Running time: 97 minutes. No MPAA rating.

Boy Meets Girl is a mildly ironic title for a movie that almost always feels genuine. It's a romantic comedy-drama about Ricky (Michelle Handley), a young Kentucky woman who wants to go to a fashion school in New York. Ricky was also born female in every way except physically. The transgender narrative has become more familiar and less exotic in recent years, and deservedly so. What once might have come across as gimmicky, a way for a cisgender (or non-transgender) actor or actress to play trans and collect accolades (cf. Felicity Huffman, Jeffrey Tambor), now powers a low-key film in which Ricky's identity is more or less taken for granted, and Ricky is played by a neophyte trans actress whose experiences bring unstressed authenticity to the character.

Ricky hangs out with childhood friend Robby (Michael Welch), who seems to see her as just Ricky, a girl he's known forever. Pretty much everyone in the small Kentucky town knows who Ricky is and what her deal is. One day Ricky meets Francesca (Alexandra Turschen), and even though Francesca is engaged to a soldier, David (Michael Galante), stationed in Afghanistan, she and Ricky pursue a tentative connection. Francesca doesn't know what Ricky's deal is, but she finds out soon enough, and it intrigues her even more. We can guess, however, that David won't be in Afghanistan for long.

Despite that, Boy Meets Girl takes its cue from the laid-back drawl of Michelle Hendley, whose unaffected performance provides a baseline of truth and humor. Ricky has climbed long and hard to be okay with herself, and by the time the movie starts she's already done seven years of hormones and many more years of getting used to her own skin. The awkwardness is mostly felt by Francesca and, later, her fiancé; they may not hate Ricky for who she is, but the very fact of Ricky makes them wonder about their own identities. The supporting cast -- especially Michael Welch, who reminded me of the very young Saving Private Ryan-era Nathan Fillion -- seems happy to work alongside Hendley and to enact the script's emotional convolutions.

This is the tenth feature by writer-director Eric Schaeffer, whose goofy If Lucy Fell I pooh-poohed nearly twenty years ago, and whose subsequent work I skipped. Based on Boy Meets Girl, I now feel I may have done Schaeffer a disservice, ignoring his later output that may have been, for all I know, as thorny and insightful and good-hearted as this film is. The movie logically stops at the eighty-minute point, but then goes on a bit longer, because it recognizes that it needs to deal with two other characters and the feelings they bring into the mix. The cheerful denouement feels earned. Ricky's life beyond the movie will go as it should. She can take care of herself.

PEARLS BEFORE SWINE

to enable dis-entangling. Mr. Moore has devoted much of his career to understanding the endangered North Atlantic right whale, which are too often the victims of human activities. Since coming to WHOI as a graduate student in 1986, Moore has investigated why populations of North Atlantic right whales have not rebounded as they could have in the eight decades since whaling was outlawed, while their South Atlantic cousins have. Moore and colleagues at the New England Aquarium and elsewhere, as part of the Right Whale Consortium, have come to recognize that the species lives mostly in a highly "urbanized" ocean, where ship strikes and fishing gear entanglements are a constant concern.

As a result, Moore has studied various pharmacological and mechanical tools to help restrain or sedate large whales so that they can be cut loose from ropes and fishing gear. These efforts include the development of methods of injecting large whales with sedatives or antibiotics. Moore and colleagues Becky Woodward and Jeremy Winn have also modeled the interactions between fixed fishing gear and large whale body parts and conducted engineering tests to determine how rope interacts with whale baleen.

This program promises to be an interesting one, and preregistration is strongly recommended. Please preregister at the museum's website: www.marionmuseum.org. Cost is a $6 donation to Marion Natural History Museum.

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Mixed signals could create problems. Make sure your views are presented clearly, and insist others do the same. Don't let an unanswered question go by without a full explanation.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Financial pressures ease, allowing for more budget flexibility. But as the money-wise Bovine will appreciate, thrift still beats out splurging. Expect news from someone special.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Getting things done is what you do so well. But be careful not to overtax your energy reserves. Take time out to relax or to do something different to help keep them at optimum levels.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) This is a good time to satisfy the Moon Child's growing sense of wanderlust. Choose a really special place to go to, with a very special person to share it all with you.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You love being in the spotlight. But be careful it doesn't blind you to the truth behind a seemingly wonderful opportunity. Look closer and you might be sadly surprised at what you find.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Isn't it time to take a break from your hectic schedule? Sure it is. And the sooner you do, the sooner you can return fresh and more than ready to take on all those new projects.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A recent family incident can help bring everyone closer, and there's no one who's better at making that happen than you. Accept (indeed, insist on!) help from others to get things off and running.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Long-held habits are often difficult to break. But the change from how you always did things to how you can do them now can be liberating. So, be flexible and give it a try.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Someone you met in your professional world last year and thought you would never hear from again could make a sudden reappearance in your life, along with an interesting job offer.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Once again, you delight everyone by coming up with a solution for a problem that actually works. On another note, it's not too early to get started on those travel plans.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Before you go ahead with finalizing your plans for your new project, check them over to see if you can make some improvements or if you can find ways to cut costs.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) The Fabulous Fish might have been out of the social swim for too long, and it's time you plunge back in. Reinforce your old friendships and be open to starting new ones.

BORN THIS WEEK: Your creative talents help bring beauty to the world and the people in it. On their behalf, thank you.

Friday, March 6, 7:00 - 8:30 pm: Beyond the White Shark – Sharks of New England with Dr. Tom Burns

Dr. Tom Burns has been photographing sharks for over 20 years. His pursuit of shark encounters has taken him around the world. Years of in-water interactions with sharks, often without the barrier of a cage, has allowed him to obtain a real perspective of these intelligent animals. Based on Cape Cod, Massachusetts, it is the sharks of New England that have become his focus including the mako shark, basking shark, porbeagles and the rare hammerhead and tiger sharks. Beyond the species profiles, Dr. Burns will give the audience background on how he dives, photographs, and interacts with these different species. Some might be surprised to learn that he never uses a shark cage and will sometimes use aerial spotters for encountering sharks such as hammerheads. The presentation will include some of Dr. Burns' stunning photographs which have been published in numerous magazines. Location: Marion Natural History Museum, 8 Spring Street, Marion, MA. Cost: $6 donation to the Marion Natural History Museum.

SCC Presents Sing-a-long-a Sound of Music

On January 30 at 6:30 pm at the Marion Music Hall, 164 Front St. in Marion, the SouthCoast Children's Chorus presents Sing-a-long-a Sound of Music. "If you've always wanted to be a part of a musical, this is your chance!" ABC World News Tonight

Having started in the UK back in 1999, the Sing-a-Long-a Sound of Music show has now become a worldwide hit, playing to packed houses across the globe with over 10,000 performances in 11 different countries! It's even filled the Hollywood Bowl in Los Angeles – seven times!

Let's start at the very beginning (a very good place to start)…

Sing-a-long-a Sound of Music is a screening of the classic Julie Andrews film musical in glorious, full-screen technicolor, complete with subtitles so that the whole audience can sing along!

The fun-filled show will start with a vocal warm-up led by Leslie Piper, Artistic Director of the SouthCoast Children's Chorus, who will also take the audience through their complimentary 'magic moments fun pack,' containing various props to be used at strategic points throughout the film.

Audience members are strongly encouraged to come in costume, and prizes will be awarded for the best/most creative costumes!

So get those vocal cords warmed up, cut up those chintz curtains and hurry down to the Marion Music Hall for a most extraordinary, fun-filled evening of participatory entertainment!

The event begins at 6:30 pm on Friday, January 30 at the Marion Music Hall, 164 Front St. in Marion. Tickets

Tri-Town Library Snow Day

Ever wanted to be part of a "flash mob"? Join the Tri-Town Libraries in a Snow Day! group event as part of our MOBYfun collaboration.

When? We don't know!! (We have to wait until it snows!) Let your library know how you want to be contacted (via email? Facebook? phone?), and when we plan to do it, we'll get in touch.

Where? At your library! All three libraries – Rochester, Marion and Mattapoisett – will invite their patrons to come to their library lawn and build forts, snow angels, sculptures ... all at the same time! Work as an individual, family or group of friends to construct some fabulous creations from snow. Hot chocolate will be served and pictures will be taken … say cheese!

Need some ideas on snow sculpting?? Check out what your library has on the shelf to spark your creativity!

Best Seat in the House? Every Seat!

The Music Hall Advisory Committee is pleased to announce two very significant donations – an audio system donated by an anonymous donor, as well as 150 comfortable, new chairs from a dual donation by an anonymous donor and the Sippican Historical Society.

The Committee is deeply grateful for these wonderful contributions that will greatly enhance the comfort and enjoyment of audiences for the many civic and cultural activities held at the Music Hall.

For information on various programs held at the Music Hall by organizations such as the Sippican Historical Society, Elizabeth Taber Library and Marion Council on Aging, as well as other local venues, you can now consult the Town of Marion's Events calendar at http://www.marionma.gov/Pages/MarionMA_Eventscal/.

Increased use of the Music Hall has led to more awareness of the maintenance issues it faces, and the Committee is very pleased to be working actively with the town's new Facilities Manager, Shaun Cormier, to ensure the long-term 'health' of this historic building. We look forward to honoring the vision of Elizabeth Taber when she built the Music Hall in 1891, as well as the generosity of another benefactress whose large donation in 1995 provided funds for a major renovation to the building as well as an endowment.

The focus now is on stabilizing the Hall's foundation, increasing handicap access, upgrading the kitchen, replacing the furnace, redoing the interior painting and floors, as well as furnishing the Reading Room. Excellent assistance from many local volunteers has proved invaluable, and the Committee welcomes any and all suggestions as the project moves forward.

Anyone who wishes to be involved in the Music Hall's improvement initiative is encouraged to contact Phyllis Washburn at myswan@verizon.net.

I Found the Aardvark!

Each week, hidden somewhere in the pages of The Wanderer is a tiny drawing of an aardvark. The little guy you are looking for looks exactly like the one pictured above (but don't put down this page as your answer, there's another one hidden somewhere in this issue).

Once you find the aardvark you can submit your answer online and if you are right you will get Aardvark Points! You can then use these points to get cool Aardvark Prizes!

To enter visit: www.wanderer.com and Click on I Found the Aardvark
In the January 22, 2015 issue the Aardvark was on page 14!
